Document 6209 (Rev. 01-2016)
Cat No. 614620

USER INFORMATION - Document 6209 is provided as a handy reference guide only. More detailed and current information can be found in the appropriate Internal Revenue Manuals or IRMs which are available online through various links on the IRWeb homepage. They can also be downloaded from the Publishing web site by clicking on the Forms/Pubs/Docs button on the left of the IRWeb home page.

Providing Document 6209 in bound book format is the most economical format for our needs since the initial cost of changing from bound book to loose-leaf would be prohibitive. Additionally, the costs incurred in subsequent years would be greater than the cost of bound format. Document 6209 contains material of a sensitive nature and requires maximum safeguards. In addition, security dictates that copies of the Document 6209 carried by Revenue Officers and others should not come apart easily as potential loss would compromise “Official Use Only” material. Document 6209 can also be viewed online at the SERP website:

In an effort to provide users with a document of the highest accuracy and ease of usage, we are soliciting your help. If you are aware of any typographical errors or usage problems, please provide this information by clicking on the “Feedback” link at the bottom of the SERP home page. Include a description of the problem and the basis for the change or correction, provide the corrected information, and specify the section, page and paragraph of the document.

Note: This does not replace the standard means of reporting processing problems (i.e., 5391 or 5715).

IRS Processing Codes and Information

Special Notice to Document 6209 Users

Dear Document 6209 Customer,

The 2016 edition is the final year we expect to provide printed copies of Document 6209. All of the information found within the print version will still be available in a variety of electronic formats. The book in its entirety can be found on SERP <http://serp.enterprise.irs.gov/databases/irm.dr/current/6209.dr/6209minitoc.htm> and contains the most up to date information at all times. We also produce a PDF version of the book available on the Forms & Pubs website <http://publish.no.irs.gov/cat12.cgi?request=CAT1&catnum=61462o>

Over the last several years, finding funding for this document has become increasingly difficult, which in turn delays production and delivery. In addition, the electronic version (SERP) is updated continually, while the printed version quickly becomes outdated, often before it is even delivered.

We look forward to continuing to provide excellent customer service and up to date content in the more flexible electronic format. During 2016 there will be training opportunities and new documentation to help users make the transition from the printed copy to SERP or PDF. Additional information will be published on the IRWeb home page <http://irweb.irs.gov/> and in the Online Tools and Resources section, Education and Training http://irweb.irs.gov/Education_Training/default.aspx as it becomes available. Thank you.
