

OFFICE OF THE
CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Student Volunteer Program

Bring your skills and talents to an agency who values fresh perspectives. As a student volunteer, you will support executive-level efforts related to strategic planning, organizational improvement, and/or stakeholder engagement, in a focus area that aligns with your interests, skills, and area of study. While the work you perform will vary depending on the specific area you are assigned, the benefits of participation remain consistent – you’ll receive professional skill development, networking opportunities, and the potential for academic credit for work performed. Let us help you build a foundation for future success!

General Qualifications

- Must be a U.S. Citizen and at least 16 years old
- Must be enrolled at least half-time in an accredited educational institution
- Must have and maintain a minimum 2.5 GPA on 4.0 scale
- Must commit a minimum of eight (8) hours/week to program participation

Contact

To be considered for opportunities with the IRS Office of the Chief Operating Officer Student Volunteer Program, send your resume & unofficial transcripts to:
coo.student.intern.progam@irs.gov