

Energy Efficient Home Improvement Credit

Qualified Manufacturers: Registration Guide

User Guide

This user guide is meant to help manufacturers of energy efficient home improvement products register for an online Clean Energy Account and submit a Qualified Manufacturer Registration and Agreement application.

1. You must have an ID.me account to register for a Clean Energy Account (CEA). The IRS uses ID.me, a technology provider, to provide identity verification and sign-in services.
 - If you have an ID.me account, just sign in. Don't create a new ID.me account for your business.
 - If you're a new user, have your photo identification ready. Verify your personal identity – not your business information – with ID.me.
2. You must have a Clean Energy Account (CEA) to register as a Qualified Manufacturer (QM)

Have the following items on hand for registration:

- Business name as listed on Federal tax return.
- Business Employer Identification Number (EIN)

Notes to users:

- The first user to register on behalf of an entity will be assigned as a 'Clean Energy Officer' for the entity.
- Once the first user has created an account for the organization, additional users can be added with approval from the Clean Energy Officer. Publication 5902, Clean Energy Authorization Permission Management User Guide explains the different roles of each user and will walk you through on how to add additional users.

This is the first release of Energy Credits Online. Future releases will contain enhanced functionality.

Register Here

If you run into any difficulty throughout the process, please contact the IRS through Secure Messaging using your IRS Energy Credits Online account.

This guide provides an example of how to register. It is not intended to cover every scenario.

Qualified Manufacturers

This user guide provides guidance to Qualified Manufacturers on how to:

- Register and apply to become a Qualified Manufacturer
- Establishing a Qualified Manufacturer Identification (QMID) Code
- Assign or update your eligible products with your QMID

NOTE: Examples are for illustrative purposes only.

Login to Secure Messaging using your IRS Energy Credits Online account for help at any point throughout the process!
