Dear :

We are responding to your correspondence requesting late S corporation relief in order to establish 1996 as the effective year for your election. Automatic late S corporation relief is unavailable under Revenue Procedure 97-48 because Internal Revenue Service records reflect that your 1996 Form 1120S return was received past the due date. Although we are unable to respond to your request as submitted, this letter provides information relating to correcting your situation.

Announcement 97-4 (copy enclosed) provides guidance on seeking relief for late S corporation elections. Generally, to request relief for a late S corporation election you must request a private letter ruling from the National Office. The procedures for requesting a private letter ruling are set out in Revenue Procedure 2002-1 (copy enclosed). In addition, Rev. Proc. 2002-1 requires taxpayers to submit a user fee along with their ruling request. The standard user fee for a private letter ruling is $6,000. However, taxpayers with gross income of less than $1 million on their tax return for the most recent 12-month taxable year, qualify for a reduced user fee in the amount of $500. If you qualify for the reduced fee, you must include a statement certifying your gross income for the last 12-month taxable year. Otherwise, the higher fee will apply.

If you decide to submit a formal request for a private letter ruling, please review Appendix B of Rev. Proc. 2002-1, and be certain to include all required procedural statements. Also include the proper user fee and any documents that substantiate your intent to be an S corporation from inception. Please refer your request to our office by adding the following to the address:

Attn: CC:PA:T
P.O. Box 7604
Ben Franklin Station
Washington, DC 20044

Direct to: CC:PSI:1

In addition, the IRS has developed two new CD-ROMs to help educate small business owners on their tax responsibilities: (1) Introduction to Federal Taxes for Small Business/Self-Employed; and (2) A Virtual Small Business Workshop. These two CD-ROMs are free and can be ordered by calling 1-800-829-3676. The IRS also provides a special website, www.irs.gov/smallbiz which is dedicated to providing information to small business taxpayers.

Please keep this letter with your tax records and feel free to provide a copy of it to your authorized representative. We hope that the above information proves helpful.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ Dianna K. Miosi
