For what are represented to be valid business reasons the following transaction has been proposed:

- (i) Acquiring will split its stock, increasing the outstanding stock from _____ shares to _____ shares, _____ of which will be held by Shareholder A and _____ shares of which will be held by Associates
- (ii) Associates will distribute its _____ shares of Acquiring to its partners as follows:

Shareholder	Shares

- (vii) All of the stock in Target 1, Target 2, and Target 3 will be transferred by their shareholders to Acquiring solely in exchange for _____ shares of Acquiring voting stock as follows:

- (ix) Acquiring will distribute _____ shares of Acquiring non-voting common stock to its shareholders, pro rata.

In connection with the proposed transfer of all of the outstanding stock of Target 1 to Acquiring as set forth in step (vii) above, followed by the election by Acquiring, as set forth in step (viii) above, and viewing the two steps as constituting a transfer of assets and liabilities by Target 1 to Acquiring in exchange for Acquiring stock, it has been represented that:

- (a) The fair market value of the Acquiring stock received by each Target 1 shareholder will be approximately equal to the fair market value of the Target 1 stock surrendered in the exchange.
- (b) There is no plan or intention by the shareholders of Target 1 to sell, exchange, or otherwise dispose of a number of shares of Acquiring stock received in the transaction that would reduce the Target 1 shareholders' ownership of Acquiring stock to a number of shares having a value, as of the date of the transaction, of less than 50 percent of the value of all of the formerly outstanding stock of Target 1 as of the same date. For purposes of this representation, shares of Target 1 stock exchanged for cash or other property, surrendered by dissenters or exchanged for cash in lieu of fractional shares of Acquiring stock will be treated as outstanding Target 1 stock on the date of the transaction. Moreover, shares of Target 1 stock and shares of Acquiring stock held by Target 1 shareholders and otherwise sold, redeemed, or disposed of prior or subsequent to the transaction will be considered in making this representation.
- (c) Acquiring will acquire at least 90 percent of the fair market value of the net assets and at least 70 percent of the fair market value of the gross assets held by Target 1 immediately prior to the transaction. For purposes of this representation, amounts paid by Target 1 to dissenters, amounts paid by Target 1 to shareholders who receive cash or other property, amounts used by Target 1 to pay its reorganization expenses, and all redemptions and distributions (except for regular, normal dividends) made by Target 1 immediately preceding the transfer will be included as assets of Target 1 held immediately prior to the transaction.

- (d) After the transaction, the shareholders of Target 1 will be in control of Acquiring within the meaning of § 368(a)(2)(H) of the Internal Revenue Code.
- (e) Acquiring has no plan or intention to reacquire any of its stock issued in the transaction.
- (f) Acquiring has no plan or intention to sell or otherwise dispose of any of the assets of Target 1 acquired in the transaction, except for dispositions made in the ordinary course of business.
- (g) The liabilities of Target 1 assumed by Acquiring plus the liabilities, if any, to which the transferred assets are subject were incurred by Target 1 in the ordinary course of its business and are associated with the assets transferred.
- (h) Following the transaction, Acquiring will continue the historic business of Target 1 or use a significant portion of Target 1's historic business assets in a business.
- (i) At the time of the transaction, Acquiring will not have outstanding any warrants, options, convertible securities, or any other type of right pursuant to which any person could acquire stock in Acquiring that, if exercised or converted, would affect the Target 1 shareholders' acquisition or retention of control of Acquiring, as defined in § 368(a)(2)(H) of the Code.
- (j) Acquiring, Target 1, and the shareholders of Target 1 will pay their respective expenses, if any, incurred in connection with the transaction.
- (k) There is no intercorporate indebtedness existing between Acquiring and Target 1 that was issued, acquired, or will be settled at a discount,
- (l) No two parties to the transaction are investment companies as defined in § 368(a)(2)(F)(iii) and (iv) of the Code.
- (m) The fair market value of the assets of Target 1 transferred to Acquiring will equal or exceed the sum of the liabilities assumed by Acquiring, plus the amount of liabilities, if any, to which the transferred assets are subject.

- (n) The total adjusted basis of the assets of Target 1 transferred to Acquiring will equal or exceed the sum of the liabilities to be assumed by Acquiring, plus the amount of liabilities, if any, to which the transferred assets are subject.

For purposes of this representation, shares of Target 2 stock exchanged for cash or other property, surrendered by dissenters or exchanged for cash in lieu of fractional shares of Acquiring stock will be treated as outstanding Target 2 stock on the date of the transaction. - (g) The liabilities of Target 2 assumed by Acquiring plus the liabilities, if any, to which the transferred assets are subject were incurred by Target 2 in the ordinary course of its business and are associated with the assets transferred.
- (h) Following the transaction, Acquiring will continue the historic business of Target 2 or use a significant portion of Target 2's historic business assets in a business.

Based solely on the information submitted and on the representations set forth above, we rule as follows:

- (1) Each of the transfers of the outstanding stock of Target 1 and Target 2, followed by the elections to treat such corporations as qualified subchapter S subsidiaries will be viewed, for federal income tax purposes, as a transfer by the respective Target of its assets to Acquiring in exchange for Acquiring stock and the assumption of liabilities (Rev. - (2) The transfer by Target 1 of substantially all of its assets to Acquiring solely in exchange for Acquiring stock and the assumption by Acquiring of the liabilities of Target 1 will constitute a reorganization within the meaning of § 368(a)(1)(D) of the Code. - (7) The holding period of the Acquiring stock received in exchange for Target 1 stock will include the period during which the stock surrendered in exchange therefor was held, provided such stock constituted a capital asset on the date of the exchange (§ 1223(1)).
- (8) As provided in § 381(a), Acquiring will succeed to and take into account the items of Target 1 described in § 381(c), subject to the provisions and limitations of §§ 381, 382, 383, and 384.
- (9) The transfer by Target 2 of substantially all of its assets to Acquiring solely in exchange for Acquiring stock and the assumption by Acquiring of the liabilities of Target 2 will constitute a reorganization within the meaning of § 368(a)(1)(D) of the Code. For the purposes of this ruling, “substantially all” means at least ninety percent of the fair market value of the net assets and at least seventy percent of the fair market value of the gross assets of Target 2. Target 2 and Acquiring will each be a party to a reorganization within the meaning of § 368(b) of the Code.

- (10) No gain or loss will be recognized to Target 2 upon the transfer of its property solely in exchange for Acquiring stock and the assumption by Acquiring of the liabilities of Target 2 (§§ 361(a) and 357(a)).

- (13) The basis of the stock of Acquiring received in exchange for Target 2 stock in the transaction will be the same as the basis of the Target 2 stock surrendered in exchange therefor (§ 358(a)(1)).
- (14) The holding period of the Acquiring stock received in exchange for Target 2 stock will include the period during which the stock surrendered in exchange therefor was held, provided such stock constituted a capital asset on the date of the exchange (§ 1223(1)).
- (15) As provided in § 381(a), Acquiring will succeed to and take into account the items of Target 2 described in § 381(c), subject to the provisions and limitations of §§ 381, 382, 383, and 384.
- (16) Section 1363(d) will not require Partnership or Acquiring to include in their gross income any LIFO recapture amount for the inventory deemed transferred to Acquiring.
