

Section 301.9100-2 sets forth rules governing automatic extensions for regulatory elections, including elections to use other than the required tax year under § 444. If the provisions of § 301.9100-2 do not apply to the taxpayer's situation, as in the instant case, the provisions of § 301.9100-3 (Other extensions) may apply.

Section 301.9100-3 sets forth standards that the Commissioner will employ in determining whether to grant discretionary relief in situations that do not meet the requirements of § 301.9100-2. The standards applied are whether the taxpayer acted reasonably and in good faith in the matter, and whether the granting of relief will prejudice the interests of the government. Generally, a taxpayer will be deemed to have acted reasonably and in good faith where, for example, the taxpayer reasonably relied on a qualified tax professional, and that professional failed to make, or advise the taxpayer to make, the election at issue.

The information submitted and representations furnished by Taxpayer and its tax professionals establish that Taxpayer acted reasonably and in good faith in respect of this matter. Furthermore, we have determined that the granting of relief in this case will not prejudice the interests of the government within the intentment of § 301.9100-3(c)(1). Accordingly, the requirements of § 301.9100-3 for the granting of relief have been satisfied.

A copy of this letter and taxpayer's Form 8716 filed in connection with this ruling request are being forwarded to the service center where the taxpayer files its returns of tax, with instructions that the form be considered timely filed and processed so as to affect a taxable year ending November 30, effective for taxpayer's taxable year beginning December 1, 2004, and ending November 30, 2005.

This ruling is conditioned on Taxpayer complying with § 1.7519-1T(a)(2), which provides, in relevant part, that for each tax year that an S corporation has an election under § 444 in effect, the corporation must (i) file a return as provided in § 1.7519-2T(a)(2), and (ii) make any required payment as provided in § 1.7519-2T.

Except for the specific ruling above, which is restricted to the filing of Form 8716, we express or imply no opinion concerning the federal income tax consequences of the facts of this case under any other provision of the Code or regulations that may be applicable thereto.

In accordance with the provisions of a power of attorney currently on file with this office, a copy of this letter ruling is being sent to the Taxpayer's authorized representative.

This ruling is directed only to the taxpayer that requested it. Under § 6110(k)(3) of the Code, this ruling may not be used or cited as precedent by other taxpayers.

Sincerely,

/s/ George F. Wright
