Dear :

This letter responds to your letter dated July 13, 2017, and subsequent correspondence, requesting relief under § 1362(f) of the Internal Revenue Code.

FACTS

The information submitted states that  $\underline{X}$  was organized on  $\underline{Date\ 1}$  as a corporation under the laws of  $\underline{State}$ . Effective  $\underline{Date\ 2}$ ,  $\underline{X}$  elected to be treated as an S corporation. As of  $\underline{Year\ 1}$ ,  $\underline{A}$  was a shareholder of  $\underline{X}$ . Also as of  $\underline{Year\ 1}$ ,  $\underline{A}$  and  $\underline{A}$ 's spouse and were the sole owners of  $\underline{LLC}$ , a limited liability company treated as a disregarded entity for federal tax purposes.  $\underline{A}$ ,  $\underline{A}$ 's spouse, and  $\underline{LLC}$  were the owners of  $\underline{Partnership}$ , a  $\underline{State}$  limited partnership.

During Year 1, A requested that  $\underline{X}$  transfer his shares in  $\underline{X}$  to Partnership. Even though  $\underline{X}$ 's articles of incorporation and bylaws prohibited this transfer,  $\underline{X}$  issued a stock certificate in the name of Partnership on Date 3. During Year 2,  $\underline{X}$  discovered that it had inadvertently made this transfer, and immediately thereafter rescinded the transfer and restored ownership of the transferred shares to A.

 $\underline{X}$  represents that  $\underline{X}$  and its shareholders intended for  $\underline{X}$  to remain an S corporation effective  $\underline{Date\ 3}$  and that  $\underline{X}$  has filed all returns consistent with  $\underline{X}$ 's status as an S corporation since  $\underline{Date\ 3}$ .  $\underline{X}$  further represents that during the years at issue all income of both  $\underline{LLC}$  and  $\underline{Partnership}$  attributable to  $\underline{X}$  was allocated to the individual partners as though the individual partners owned the  $\underline{X}$  stock directly.  $\underline{X}$  and its shareholders agree to make any adjustments required as a condition of obtaining relief under the inadvertent termination rule as provided in § 1362(f) of the Code.

LAW AND ANALYSIS

Section 1361(a)(1) provides that the term "S corporation" means, with respect to any taxable year, a small business corporation for which an election under § 1362(a) is in effect for the year.

Section 1361(b)(1) defines a "small business corporation" as a domestic corporation which is not an ineligible corporation which does not (A) have more than 100 shareholders, (B) have as a shareholder a person (other than an estate, and a trust described in § 1361(c)(2), or an organization described in § 1361(c)(6)) who is not an individual, (C) have a nonresident alien as a shareholder, and (D) have more than one class of stock.

Section 1362(d)(2)(A) provides than an election under § 1362(a) shall be terminated whenever (at any time on or after the 1st day of the 1st taxable year for which the corporation is an S corporation) such corporation ceases to be a small business corporation. Section 1362(d)(2)(B) further provides that the termination shall be effective on and after the date of cessation.

Section 1362(f) provides, in relevant part, that if (1) an election under § 1362(a) by any corporation (A) was not effective for the taxable year for which made (determined without regard to § 1362(b)(2)) by reason of a failure to meet the requirements of § 1361(b) or to obtain shareholder consents or (B) was terminated under § 1362(d)(2) or (3), (2) the Secretary determines that the circumstances resulting in the ineffectiveness or termination were inadvertent, (3) no later than a reasonable period of time after discovery of the circumstances resulting in the ineffectiveness or termination, steps were taken (A) so that the corporation is a small business corporation or (B) to acquire the shareholder consents, and (4) the corporation and each person who was a shareholder of the corporation at any time during the period specified pursuant to § 1362(f), agrees to make such adjustments (consistent with the treatment of the corporation as an S corporation) as may be required by the Secretary with respect to such period, then, notwithstanding the circumstances resulting in the ineffectiveness or termination, the corporation will be treated as an S corporation during the period specified by the Secretary.

CONCLUSION

Based on the facts submitted and the representations made, we conclude that  $\underline{X}$ 's S corporation election may have terminated on  $\underline{Date\ 3}$  when  $\underline{X}$  issued a stock certificate in the name of  $\underline{Partnership}$ . However, we conclude that any such termination was inadvertent within the meaning of § 1362(f). Therefore,  $\underline{X}$  will be treated as continuing to be an S corporation from  $\underline{Date\ 3}$  and thereafter, provided  $\underline{X}$ 's S corporation election was otherwise valid and, apart from the inadvertent termination ruling described above, has not otherwise terminated under § 1362(d).

Except as specifically ruled upon above, we express or imply no opinion concerning the federal tax consequences of the facts described above under any other provision of the Code. Specifically, we express or imply no opinion regarding  $\underline{X}$ 's eligibility to be an S corporation.

The ruling contained in this letter is based upon information and representations submitted by the taxpayer and is accompanied by a penalty of perjury statement executed by an appropriate party. While this office has not verified any of the material submitted in support of this request, it is subject to verification on examination.

This ruling is directed only to the taxpayer that requested it. Section 6110(k)(3) of the Code provides that this ruling may not be used or cited as precedent.
