Administration Regulations to file an election under § 754 of the Internal Revenue Code (Code).

FACTS

X was formed as a limited liability company under State law on Date 1 and is treated as a partnership for federal tax purposes. A, a partner of X, died on Date 2 and \underline{C} inherited \underline{A} 's interest in \underline{X} . \underline{X} inadvertently failed to make a timely election under § 754 for the year of \underline{A} 's death.

 \underline{X} requests an extension of time to make a § 754 election. \underline{X} represents that it acted reasonably and in good faith, and that granting relief will not prejudice the interests of the government.

LAW AND ANALYSIS

Section 754 provides that a partnership may elect to adjust the basis of partnership property when there is a distribution of property or a transfer of a partnership interest. An election under § 754 applies with respect to all distributions of property by the partnership and to all transfers of interests in the partnership during the taxable year with respect to which the election was filed and all subsequent taxable years.

Section 1.754-1(b) of the Income Tax Regulations provides that an election under § 754 to adjust the basis of partnership property under §§ 734(b) and 743(b), with respect to a distribution of property to a partner or a transfer of an interest in a partnership, must be made in a written statement filed with the partnership return for the taxable year during which the distribution or transfer occurs. For the election to be valid, the return must be filed no later than the time prescribed by § 1.6031-1(e) (including extensions) for filing the return for such taxable year.

Section 301.9100-1(c) provides that the Commissioner may grant a reasonable extension of time to make a regulatory election, or a statutory election (but no more than six months except in the case of a taxpayer who is abroad), under all subtitles of the Code, except subtitles E, G, H, and I. Section 301.9100-1(b) defines the term "regulatory election" as including an election whose due date is prescribed by a regulation published in the Federal Register.

Sections 301.9100-1 through 301.9100-3 provide the standards that the Commissioner will use to determine whether to grant an extension of time to make an election. Section 301.9100-2 provides automatic extensions of time for making certain elections. Section 301.9100-3 provides rules for requesting extensions of time for regulatory elections that do not meet the requirements of § 301.9100-2.

Under § 301.9100-3, a request for relief will be granted when the taxpayer provides evidence (including affidavits described in § 301.9100-3(e)) to establish to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that (1) the taxpayer acted reasonably and in good faith, and (2) granting relief will not prejudice the interests of the government.

CONCLUSION

Based solely on the facts submitted and the representations made, we conclude that the requirements of §§ 301.9100-1 and 301.9100-3 have been satisfied. As a result, \underline{X} is granted an extension of one hundred-twenty (120) days from the date of this letter to make a § 754 election for \underline{Y} ear. The election should be made in a written statement filed with the applicable service center for association with \underline{X} 's return. A copy of this letter should be attached to the statement filed.

This ruling is contingent on \underline{X} adjusting the basis of its properties to reflect any \S 734(b) or \S 743(b) adjustments that would have been made if the \S 754 election had been timely made. These basis adjustments must reflect any additional depreciation that would have been allowable if the \S 754 election had been timely made, regardless of whether the statutory period of limitation on assessment or filing a claim for refund has expired for any year subject to this grant of late relief. Any depreciation deduction allowable for an open year is to be computed based on the remaining useful life and using property basis as adjusted by the greater of any depreciation deduction allowed or allowable in any prior year had the \S 754 election been timely made.

Additionally, the partners of \underline{X} must adjust the basis of their interests in \underline{X} to reflect what that basis would be if the § 754 election had been timely made, regardless of whether the statutory period of limitation on assessment or filing a claim for refund has expired for any year subject to this grant of late relief. Specifically, the partners of \underline{X} must reduce the basis of their interests in \underline{X} in the amount of any additional depreciation that would have been allowable if the § 754 election had been timely made.

Except as specifically ruled on above, we express or imply no opinion concerning the tax consequences of any facts discussed or referenced in this letter. This ruling is directed only to the taxpayer who requested it. Section 6110(k)(3) provides that it may not be used or cited as precedent.

In accordance with a power of attorney on file with this office, we are sending a copy of this letter ruling to your authorized representatives.

Sincerely,

Associate Chief Counsel (Passthroughs & Special Industries)
