Dear :

This letter responds to a letter dated April 17, 2020, submitted on behalf of Parent, the U.S. shareholder of ForeignSub, requesting an extension of time under §301.9100-3 of the Procedure and Administration Regulations to file an election. Parent is requesting an extension to file a “section 338 election” under section 338(g) with respect to an acquisition of the stock of Target (sometimes hereinafter referred to as the “Election”), on Date 1. The material information submitted is summarized below.

Parent is the common parent of a consolidated group (the “Parent Group”). Parent is also the United States shareholder (as defined in section 951(b)) of ForeignSub. Parent has represented that on Date 1 ForeignSub satisfied the definition of a qualified stock purchase within the meaning of section 338(d)(3) with respect to an acquisition of the stock of Target.

Parent has represented that ForeignSub is a controlled foreign corporation as defined in section 957 (taking into account section 953(c)) and is not required under §1.6012-2(g) (other than §1.6012-2(g)(2)(i)(b)(2)) to file a United States income tax return for its taxable year that includes the acquisition date.

Parent, as the United States shareholder of the foreign purchasing corporation, ForeignSub, intended to file the Election, but for various reasons a valid Election was not filed. After the due date for the Election, it was discovered that the Election had not been filed. Subsequently, this request was submitted, under §301.9100-3, for an extension of time to file the Election.

Parent has represented that it would have made the Election as of the election due date regardless of the enactment of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act, P.L. 115-97 (“TCJA”) and the issuance of regulations relating to the TCJA.

The period of limitations on assessment under section 6501(a) has not expired for the taxable year in which the acquisition occurred, the taxable year in which the Election should have been filed, or any taxable years that would have been affected by the Election had it been timely filed. Parent has represented that it is not seeking to alter a return position for which an accuracy-related penalty has been or could be imposed under section 6662 at the time it requested relief (taking into account any qualified amended return filed within the meaning of §1.6664-2(c)(3)) and for which the new return position requires or permits a regulatory election for which relief is requested.

Section 338(a) permits certain stock purchases to be treated as asset acquisitions if: (1) the purchasing corporation makes or is treated as having made a “section 338 election” or a “section 338(h)(10) election”; and (2) the acquisition is a “qualified stock purchase.”

Under §301.9100-1(c), the Commissioner has discretion to grant a reasonable extension of time to make a regulatory election, or a statutory election (but no more than six months except in the case of a taxpayer who is abroad), under all subtitles of the Internal Revenue Code except subtitles E, G, H, and I.

Sections 301.9100-1 through 301.9100-3 provide the standards the Commissioner will use to determine whether to grant an extension of time to make a regulatory election. Section 301.9100-1(a). Section 301.9100-2 provides automatic extensions of time for making certain elections. Requests for relief under §301.9100-3 will be granted when the taxpayer provides evidence to establish to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the taxpayer acted reasonably and in good faith, and that granting relief will not prejudice the interests of the government. Section 301.9100-3(a).

In this case, the time for filing the Election is fixed by the regulations (i.e., §1.338-2(d)). Therefore, the Commissioner has discretionary authority under §301.9100-3 to grant an extension of time for Parent to file the Election, provided it acted reasonably and in good faith, the requirements of §§301.9100-1 and 301.9100-3 are satisfied, and granting relief will not prejudice the interests of the government.

Information, affidavits, and representations submitted by Parent and Company Officials explain the circumstances that resulted in the failure to timely file a valid Election. The information establishes that the request for relief was filed before the failure to make the Election was discovered by the Internal Revenue Service. See §§301.9100-3(b)(1)(i).

Based on the facts and information submitted, including the representations made, we conclude that Parent has shown it acted reasonably and in good faith, the requirements of §§301.9100-1 and 301.9100-3 are satisfied, and granting relief will not prejudice the interests of the government. Accordingly, an extension of time is granted under §301.9100-3, until 60 days from the date on this letter, for Parent to file the Election.

WITHIN 60 DAYS OF THE DATE ON THIS LETTER, Parent must file the Election on Form 8023, in accordance with §1.338-2(d) and (e)(3) and the instructions to the form. A copy of this letter must be attached to Form 8023.

WITHIN 150 DAYS OF THE DATE ON THIS LETTER, all relevant parties must file or amend, as applicable, all returns and amended returns (if any) necessary to report the transaction as a section 338 transaction for the taxable year in which the transaction was consummated (and for any other affected taxable year). A copy of this letter and a copy of Form 8883 must be attached to any tax return to which it is relevant. Alternatively, taxpayers filing their returns electronically may satisfy the requirement of attaching a copy of this letter by attaching a statement to their return that provides the date on and control number of the letter ruling.

Parent must also deliver written notice of the election (and a copy of Forms 8023 and 8883, their attachments and instructions) to each U.S. person (other than a member of the affiliated group of which the purchasing corporation is a member) selling or holding stock in Target in accordance with §1.338-2(e)(4).

The above extension of time is conditioned on the taxpayers' tax liability (if any) being not lower, in the aggregate, for all years to which the Election applies, than it would have been if the Election had been timely made (taking into account the time value of money). No opinion is expressed as to the taxpayers' tax liability for the years involved. A determination thereof will be made by the applicable Director's office upon audit of the Federal income tax returns involved.

Except as expressly provided herein, no opinion is expressed or implied concerning the tax consequences of any aspect of any transaction or item discussed or referenced in this letter. In particular, we express no opinion as to: (1) whether the acquisition of the stock of Target qualifies as a “qualified stock purchase” under section 338(d)(3); or (2) any other tax consequences arising from the Election.

In addition, we express no opinion as to the tax consequences of filing the Election late under the provisions of any other section of the Code and regulations, or as to the tax treatment of any conditions existing at the time of, or resulting from, filing the Election late that are not specifically set forth in the above ruling. For purposes of granting relief under §301.9100-3, we relied on certain statements and representations made by Parent and Company Officials. However, the Director should verify all essential facts. In addition, notwithstanding that an extension is granted under §301.9100-3 to file the Election, penalties and interest that would otherwise be applicable, if any, continue to apply.

This ruling is directed only to the taxpayer requesting it. Section 6110(k)(3) of the Code provides that it may not be used or cited as precedent. In accordance with the Power of Attorney on file with this office, copies of this letter are being sent to your authorized representative.

Sincerely,

Thomas I. Russell
