Dear :

This ruling responds to the Taxpayer’s request dated Date 1. Specifically, the taxpayer requests an extension of time under sections 301.9100-1 and 301.9100-3 of the Income Tax Regulations to (1) make a timely election under section 1.1400Z2(a)-1(d)(2)(i) to be certified as a qualified opportunity fund (QOF), as defined in section 1400Z-2(d) of the Internal Revenue Code; and (2) for the Taxpayer to be treated as a QOF, effective as of Date 2, as provided under section 1400Z-2(d) of the Code and section 1.1400Z2(d)-1(a) of the Income Tax Regulations.

FACTS

The Taxpayer represents the facts are as follows:

The Taxpayer was organized as a limited liability company under the laws of State Z on Date 3 and is classified as a partnership for federal income tax purposes. The Taxpayer amended its operating agreement to reflect its purpose of investing in qualified opportunity zone property as defined in section 1400Z-2(d)(2) on Date 4.

The Taxpayer is owned by the Members, a married couple. On Date 5, the Members spoke to Accounting Firm in order to obtain advice on the potential tax filing obligations of the Taxpayer as a QOF. The Accountant and Accounting Firm had previously prepared individual returns for the Members.

On Date 6, the Members forwarded information regarding the various federal tax filing obligations for the Taxpayer for Year 1, including the filing of a request for an extension of time, to Accounting Firm and assumed that Accountant would take all necessary steps to file the Federal income tax return. The due date for the Taxpayer's Form 1065 was Date 7.

On Date 8, the Members followed up with the Accounting Firm about the status of the Taxpayer's Form 1065 for Year 1. The Members were then informed that that the Accountant had left Accounting Firm, the Accountant believed that Accounting Firm was not responsible for the Taxpayer's return, and that Accounting Firm did not have the capacity to file the Taxpayer's return. The Members promptly engaged the New Accountant, who then filed the Taxpayer's return on Date 9 with an attached Form 8996, Qualified Opportunity Fund. The Form 8996 indicated that the Taxpayer intended to be treated as a QOF as of Date 4. Because the Form 1065 and Form 8996 were filed late, Taxpayer failed to self-certify as a QOF.

After Taxpayer became aware of the consequences of failing to timely file the Form 1065 and Form 8996, this request for relief was promptly submitted under sections 301.9100-1 and 301.9100-3. Taxpayer represents that it relied on Accountant and Accounting Firm to timely file Form 8996. Taxpayer further represents that granting of the relief under section 301.9100-3 will not result in a lower tax liability for the years affected by the election.

LAW AND ANALYSIS

Section 1400Z-2(e)(4)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code directs the Secretary to prescribe regulations for rules for the certification of QOFs. Section 1.1400Z2(d)-1(a)(2) of the Income Tax Regulations provides that the rules for an entity to self-certify as a QOF. Section 1.1400Z2(a)-1(a)(2)(i) provides that the entity electing to be certified as a QOF must do so annually on a timely filed return in such form and manner as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue in the Internal Revenue Service forms or instructions, or in publications or guidance published in the Internal Revenue Bulletin.

To self-certify as a QOF, a taxpayer must file Form 8996, Qualified Opportunity Fund, with its tax return for the year to which the certification applies. The Form 8996 must be filed by the due date of the tax return (including extensions). The information provided indicates that the taxpayer did not file its Form 8996 by the due date of its income tax return (including extensions) due to the failure to file a timely filed return.

Because section 1.1400Z2(d)-1(a)(2)(i) sets forth the manner and timing for an entity to self-certify as a QOF, these elections are regulatory elections, as defined in section 301.9100-1(b).

Sections 301.9100-1 through 301.9100-3 provide the standards that the Commissioner will use to determine whether to grant an extension of time to make a regulatory election. Section 301.9100-3(a) provides that requests for extensions of time for regulatory elections (other than automatic extensions covered in section 301.9100-2) will be granted when the taxpayer provides evidence (including affidavits) to establish that the taxpayer acted reasonably and in good faith and the grant of relief will not prejudice the interests of the Government.

Under section 301.9100-3(b)(1)(i), a taxpayer is deemed to have acted reasonably and in good faith if the taxpayer requests relief before the failure to make the regulatory election is discovered by the Service.

In addition, section 301.9100-3(b)(3) provides that a taxpayer is deemed not to have acted reasonably and in good faith if the taxpayer—

- (i) seeks to alter a return position for which an accuracy-related penalty has been or could be imposed under § 6662 at the time the taxpayer requests relief, and the new position requires or permits a regulatory election for which relief is requested;
- (ii) was fully informed in all material respects of the required election and related tax consequences but chose not to make the election; or
- (iii) uses hindsight in requesting relief. If specific facts have changed since the original deadline that make the election advantageous to a taxpayer, the Service will not ordinarily grant relief.

Section 301.9100-3(c)(1) provides that the Commissioner will grant a reasonable extension of time to make the regulatory election only when the interests of the Government will not be prejudiced by the granting of relief.

Section 301.9100-3(c)(1)(i) provides that the interests of the Government are prejudiced if granting relief would result in a taxpayer having a lower tax liability in the aggregate for all taxable years affected by the election than the taxpayer would have had if the election had been timely made (taking into account the time value of money).

Section 301.9100-3(c)(1)(ii) provides that the interests of the government are ordinarily prejudiced if the taxable year in which the regulatory election should have been made or any taxable year that would have been affected by the election had it been timely made are closed by the period of limitations on assessment under § 6501(a) before the taxpayer's receipt of a ruling granting relief under this section.

Based on the facts and information submitted and the representations made, we conclude that the taxpayer has acted reasonably and in good faith, and that the granting of relief would not prejudice the interests of the government. Accordingly, based solely on the facts and information submitted, and the representations made in the ruling request, Taxpayer has satisfied the requirements of the regulations for the granting of relief and Taxpayer's Form 8996, filed on Date 9, is considered timely filed.

We also express no opinion whether any interest owned in any entity by the Taxpayer qualifies as qualified opportunity zone property or whether such entity would be treated as a qualified opportunity zone business. We express no opinion regarding the tax treatment of the instant transaction under the provisions of any other sections of the Code or regulations that may be applicable, or regarding the tax treatment of any conditions existing at the time of, or effects resulting from, the instant transaction.
